

*E*ASTMAN at WASHINGTON SQUARE

Fall 2011

Thursday Lunchtime Concerts

at the First Universalist Church, corner of South Clinton and Court Streets beginning at 12:15 p.m. / ending at approximately 12:45 p.m.
Free admission. Brown Bag lunches are welcome during performance.

- October 20* Project Fusion: Saxophone Quartet
Join us for the first concert of the fall with this fabulous Eastman saxophone quartet featuring Dannel Espinoza, Matt Amedio, Michael Sawzin, and Matt Evans.
- October 27* Eastman Trombone Choir
Don't miss this concert as trombones galore fill the room, led by ESM professor John Marcellus.
- November 3* Jazz at Noon
Join us for a laid-back lunch hour as students of Eastman professor Clay Jenkins perform popular American standards and jazz.
- November 10* Piano Cornucopia I
Enjoy masterworks for the keyboard as ESM professor Barry Snyder's students perform in recital.
- November 17* Piano Cornucopia II
More wonderful performances by students of ESM professor Barry Snyder!
- November 24* No Concert. Happy Thanksgiving!
- December 1* Noontime Jazz
Stop in for another great lunch hour as students of Eastman professor Jeff Campbell perform popular American standards and jazz.
- December 8* Romantic Music for Violin and Piano
Violinist Pia Liptak and pianist Carolyn Ray perform musical gems including rarely-heard pieces by Edward Elgar and Fini Henrigues.
- December 15* Eastman Community Chamber Singers
Ring in the sounds of the season with this vocal ensemble, under the direction of ECMS voice teacher Patricia Alexander.

Concerts resume January 12, 2012. Watch for the next flyer.

These concerts are presented by the Eastman Community Music School in cooperation with the First Universalist Church.
For further information about the concerts or for information about classes or private lessons call the Community Music School at 274-1400.

www.esm.rochester.edu/community