

Cello Instructor Opening (TAR part-time with Growth Opportunity)

Growth Opportunity/Expectation: This position starts as TAR part-time but we are seeking an exceptional teacher who wants to recruit a half-time or preferably a full-time studio and has proven recruiting abilities. We expect the position to grow quickly into a half-time position w/ UR benefits (12-20 hours per week) and within 2-years into a full-time Senior Instructor position (20+ hours per week) with full-time UR benefits.

Duties:

- ECMS faculty are expected to recruit students in order to build their studios
- Teach private cello lessons
- Teach students of all ages and abilities
- Teach ECMS curricular level I group classes (approximately kindergarten – 3rd grade)
- Prepare students for college auditions, NYSSMA solo festivals, NYSSMA ensemble festivals and their home school's performance needs
- Prepare students for ECMS recitals and juries and ensemble participation
- Possible ensemble coaching
- Possible mentoring of new interns
- Attend meetings as required

Requirements:

- Record of highly developed recruiting skills
- A strong desire to grow his/her studio in the ECMS
- Record as an outstanding performer and passionate teacher
- Expertise in teaching young children (ages 4-11) in private and group settings
- BM or equivalent professional experience

Salary: Hourly rate to be negotiated with Associate Dean Howard Potter

For additional information, please contact:

Dr. Howard Potter
Associate Dean for Community and Continuing Education
Eastman School of Music
26 Gibbs Street
Rochester, NY 14604
Email: hpotter@esm.rochester.edu (electronic submissions preferred)

Applicants should apply online at <http://www.rochester.edu/working/hr/jobs/>.
Job ID number: 194507

Open until filled.