Eastman Intensive English Program

International students comprise approximately 25% of the student population at Eastman, and some of the students we accept have not yet had significant exposure to English in an academic setting. For that reason, we offer an intensive English summer program, which may be required of some students before enrolling in degree coursework. Students for whom the course is not required are also welcome to enroll if they wish. The summer course has the added benefit of providing international students with some time to get adjusted to living in the United States and to get settled in Rochester.

About the Summer Intensive English Program (IEP):
The summer IEP is taught on-campus at the Eastman School of Music. This course will take place June 25 – August 17, 2018. Classes will meet Monday through Friday from 8:00am until 3:00pm. Topics include Academic Reading, Academic Writing, and Academic Speaking & Listening, with additional classes aimed at preparing non-native English speakers for the academic and social environment at the Eastman School of Music of the University of Rochester. The summer Intensive English Program will help prepare you for your undergraduate or graduate studies by providing intensive academic English training, advice on how to succeed as a student in the United States, opportunities for learning about the city, and cultural field trips. You will also have plenty of time to practice!

THE PROGRAM

Starting college-level study is challenging for most students. This is especially true for international students who also have to adjust to a language and education system different from the ones at home. In order to help you succeed, we offer an Intensive English Program.
