January 9 — Masterworks for Keyboard
Welcome the New Year with music of Bach, Mozart and Prokofiev performed by Duo Xu, piano student of ECMS Instructor Tamari Gurevich Hill.

January 16 — Musings: Music for Solo Guitar
Guitarist/composer Sungmin Shin, faculty at University of Buffalo and ECMS, presents a program of mostly original music mixed with lively Spanish and Latin American works for solo guitar.

January 23 — Piano Extravaganza I
Enjoy a piano recital featuring students of ESM professor Rebecca Penneys.

January 30 — Fresh Winds
Hear some of Eastman's finest freshmen wind players (flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, and French horn) in a dazzling display of woodwind quintet repertoire, coached by Eastman professor Anne Harrow.

February 6 — Piano Extravaganza II
Don't miss the second installment of stupendous pianists from the studio of Rebecca Penneys!

February 13 — Jazz at Noon
Enjoy a laid-back lunch hour as students of ESM Professor Jeff Campbell perform popular American standards and jazz.

February 20 — The Triumphant Organ
Take this opportunity to hear the church's historic Hope-Jones organ, in this concert featuring Bryan Holten and Prince Nyatanga, organists from the studio of ESM professor David Higgs.

February 27 — Viola, Violas!
Enjoy this recital featuring ECMS Instructor and RocMusic director Alexander Peña and friends.

March 6 — The Triumphant Organ Returns
Join us for another fabulous organ recital with ESM students of David Higgs. This recital features David Baskeyfield and Tom Gaynor.

March 13 — Flutissimo!
Enjoy the sounds of many flutes as the ECMS Krusentjerna Scholarship Flute Choir performs under the direction of ECMS flute instructor Sophia Gibbs Kim.

Concerts continue through May 29, 2014
