

Master of MusicPerformance and Literature – Piano*Advising Worksheet

Students in the Master of Music in Performance and Literature (Piano) degree may use this checklist to complete a self-assessment of their degree progress. A student can log into UR Student and access their academic history in order to fill this document out to determine if they're on track to graduate or see what remaining requirements they have left. Students can schedule an appointment with the Associate Director of Graduate Advising and Services at any time to verify their degree progress and address any concerns or questions.

In order to graduate from the Eastman School of Music and the University of Rochester with this degree and major, a student must complete a minimum of 36 credits. Students are required to complete two consecutive semesters of full-time status (minimum of 9 units) to satisfy the residency requirement.

The following checklist lists out all of the requirements needed to earn a Master of Music in Performance and Literature (Piano).

² Pianists who hold a graduate assistantship in accompanying (studio or ensemble) automatically meet this requirement by fulfilling the terms of their graduate assistantship. All other piano students must complete four semesters of ACY 100G. Signed accompanying forms must be submitted to the Accompanying Services Coordinator before the end of each semester.

³ Elective courses must be numbered 200 or higher. Arts Leadership (ALC) courses do not count towards the required units for the degree. The total number of ensembles and/or chamber music units counted toward the degree may not exceed four (4). This restriction includes all ENS and CHB courses, required or elective, with the exception of repertoire courses (CHB 401, 403, ENS 450, 451, 452, 453, or 454). Neither primary nor secondary lessons may count toward electives.
