LETTER FROM THE DEAN

Congratulations and welcome to the Eastman School of Music. You have the opportunity to pursue your passions. The determination and resilience that brought you here is something you should be proud of, and please know that we welcome you, that we’re excited to have you at our school, and that you belong. You’re here among those who strive to be the best.

This document is part of the resident’s housing contract and also includes information on Dining Services. We’ve officially called it Eastman’s “Residential Life and Dining Services Application-Contract” for 2018–19. It provides the terms and conditions for our community and becomes your official contract text when you submit your application. By signing the housing contract and residing at the Eastman School of Music, the resident agrees to abide by the housing contract, this document, and all University policies.

We encourage new students to review the terms of their admittance to the Eastman School of Music and Residential Life publications. First-, second-, and third-year students have a housing requirement: they must live on campus. This policy is intended to develop community and best support the Eastman experience. Students who live off-campus prior to senior year delay graduation; do not utilize on-campus resources and supports; miss more classes, lessons, and opportunities; and don’t make healthy choices to eat right, rest, and maintain appropriate school-life balance.

Additionally, all students living on and off campus are required to participate in a meal plan for the 2018–19 academic year. If you do not complete the dining registration and/or return a dining contract, you will be enrolled in the appropriate minimum plan requirement, and you will be assessed a $50 late registration fee. If you request a plan that does not meet the minimum requirement for your residential group, you will be assigned to the required minimum plan. Information concerning all meal plans can be viewed at the University Dining Services website at rochester.campusdish.com.

The Office for Residential Life is located at 100 Gibbs St., Rochester, New York 14605. If you have any questions, please email us at reslife@esm.rochester.edu.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Bones, EdD
Assistant Dean of Student Affairs

Value of Having a Meal Plan Membership

University of Rochester Dining Services currently purchases more than 60 percent of all items prepared and sold on campus from local sources within New York State. The participant is the only person who has the authority to request or receive account audits or balance information. Purchases made with Declining Balance funds are not subject to New York State sales tax; therefore, transfers cannot be made between a Declining Balance account and a URos account.

To help participants monitor declining balance dollars, they will have the opportunity to check the status and balance of their plan throughout the semester. This will provide helpful hints on how to best utilize the remaining funds and avoid dollars.

Additional Declining and URos dollars can be added to an existing account at any time during the term of the contract via Blackboard at learn.rochester.edu or with cash, check, Visa, MasterCard, or Discover at the customer service center in Susan B. Anthony Hall. Additional funds can be billed to the participant’s Bursar account for the fall and/or spring semester during the dining plan change periods.

URos Accounts

URos is a flexible spending account available to all students. Students activate their account by indicating a per-semester deposit at the beginning of the academic year via cash, check, Visa, MasterCard, or Discover. They may also deposit online through Blackboard at learn.rochester.edu. The URos account is accepted at all campus dining locations but is intended for use at the hillside market, bookstores, the common market, computer sales, and services, and international theater program box office as well as for vending, copy, printing services, the campus mail center, and several off-campus venues, such as luther’s stage cafe on Gibbs street.

Refund Policy

Declining Plans

Unused fall semester declining balance dollars carry forward to the spring semester. Remaining declining balance dollars at the close of the spring semester are nonrefundable. Refunds of unused declining balance will be issued for any participant who withdraws from the University or whose status changes to inactive during the academic year via cash, check, Visa, MasterCard, or Discover at the customer service center in Susan B. Anthony Hall. Additional funds can be billed to the participant’s Bursar account for the fall and/or spring semester during the dining plan change periods.

URos accounts carry over from year to year, or until your permanent departure from the University of Rochester. Refunds for unused declining balance dollars will be issued for any participant who withdraws from the University during the semester, as certified by the appropriate office or dean. Refunds will be credited through the University’s Bursar statement. Should you withdraw or resign from the University at the close of a semester or upon graduation, any unused balance of URos or more will be refunded to you.
