Biographical Sketch

*Publicity photo of Kurt Weill, attributed to Atelier Jacobi, Berlin.
From Die Musik, vol. 25, no. 2 (1922), from the Universal Edition-Kurt Weill
Correspondence, Box 1, Folder 2 (Document 2).*

Kurt Weill (1900–1950) was born and raised in Germany, but fled the country in 1933 with the advent of the Nazi regime. In 1935, after living briefly in France and England, Weill settled in the United States, where he spent the remainder of his life. Weill concentrated his energy on works for the stage—both operatic and musical-theater productions—where he blended diverse musical idioms with powerful messages of social critique. Weill's collaborators included Bertolt Brecht, Paul Green, Maxwell Anderson, Ira Gershwin, Ogden Nash, Langston Hughes, and Alan Jay Lerner. Weill's wife, the actress Lotte Lenya, was among the foremost interpreters of her husband's works, and devoted herself to promoting his music after his death.

Provenance

The Universal Edition-Kurt Weill Correspondence has been placed on permanent deposit at the Sibley Music Library by Universal Edition, Vienna.

Scope and Content

The collected correspondence provides a unique window onto the composition, revision, publication, and reception of many of Kurt Weill's works, including Der Protagonist, Der Zar lässt sich fotografieren, Aufstieg und Fall der Stadt Mahagonny, Die Bürgschaft, Der Silbersee, Die Dreigroschenoper, and the Violin Concerto. The correspondence dates from 1924–38 and 1946–50, with the bulk of activity concentrated between 1927 and 1933. The final item in the series, dated April 5, 1950, is a letter of condolence to Lotte Lenya from Universal. The correspondence is in good condition, with the exception of several fragile (i.e., brittle) documents from 1933.

Restrictions

United States and international copyright laws apply; for further guidance, consult the Kurt Weill Foundation for Music (www.kwf.org).

Associations

The Universal Edition-Kurt Weill Archive (SC1998.4), also on permanent deposit at RTWSC, preserves holograph manuscripts, manuscript reproductions, and ancillary musical and textual materials pertaining to the Weill works discussed in the Universal-Weill Correspondence. Additionally, many of the items of correspondence in the Universal Edition-Kurt Weill Correspondence have been published in the volume Kurt Weill: Briefwechsel mit der Universal Edition, edited by Nils Grosch (Stuttgart: J. B. Metzler, 2002). A copy is available in Sibley's circulating stacks (call no. ML410 .W4218 A41 2002).

Separately, RTWSC maintains a Letter File that contains more than 700 autograph letters and signatures of many composers and musicians dating from the 16th century to the 20th century.

DESCRIPTION OF SERIES

The Universal Edition–Kurt Weill Correspondence is arranged in one series titled correspondence:

Series 1: Correspondence

The documents preserved in the Universal-Weill Correspondence include letters, postcards, telegrams, and radiograms. These materials were arranged in chronological order by an agent of Universal Edition according to the date of the letter or, in cases where no date is present, the postmark, and then the correspondence was numbered sequentially (1–1472). There are a few discrepancies between the chronological ordering and the numerical sequence. First, the numbers 648, 651, 763, and 1336 were accidentally skipped, so no letters are assigned to these numbers. Additionally, as Nils Grosch noted in the introduction to Kurt Weill: Briefwechsel mit der Universal Edition, Weill occasionally wrote the incorrect date on his letters. By following the thread of the correspondence, Grosch determined the correct dating for the published correspondence, and these corrected dates are given in this inventory using square brackets (e.g., [recte June 27]). Each document has two 5-mm hole punches in the left margin, which presumably are traces from Universal Edition's original filing system for correspondence. The items are housed in bundles of 25 within document folders from the Wiener Stadt- und Landesbibliothek, Handschriftensammlung (Vienna City and State Library, Manuscript Collection).

An agent of Universal Edition prepared a detailed inventory of the correspondence in the collection; this list includes a description of the document type (e.g., letter or telegram) and recipient, date of creation (or date of postmark), material type (i.e., manuscript or typescript), extent, and dimensions (width and length in centimeters). These details have been transcribed in the inventory in this finding aid. Additionally, a copy of the complete, item-by-item inventory that was originally prepared by Universal is located in Box 1, Folder 1.
