A MESSAGE FROM THE ASSISTANT DEAN OF STUDENT AFFAIRS

Welcome to the Eastman School of Music! I am very pleased to welcome you to our New Student Orientation. Please review this orientation booklet, as it is designed to help you make a successful transition into the Eastman community. During Orientation, you will learn more about Eastman’s expectations, have opportunities to interact in meaningful ways with other new students, meet faculty and staff, and familiarize yourself with the resources necessary to be successful as you begin your studies. Orientation is intentionally structured to help you meet your goals as a new student and meet our goals to assist you along the way.

The Office of Student Affairs is a department tasked with enhancing student growth and development. While your academic deans and faculty members may push you to excel artistically and academically, Student Affairs practitioners work to challenge and support your learning outside of the classroom. The Office of Student Affairs directly oversees the Office for Residential Life and the Office for Student Activities & Engagement. The Office for Residential Life contributes to the holistic development of students through support, programs, and collaborations which foster a safe, inclusive, and engaged community for students living in the Student Living Center (SLC). The Office for Student Activities provides opportunities for student-focused extracurricular activities, diversity, leadership within clubs and organizations, fun events, and civic engagement.

I encourage you to take advantage of the special opportunities to engage with the Eastman and Rochester communities at large. The relationships you begin to forge this week will be the foundation of your professional networks here at Eastman and into the future. From the Office of Student Affairs, we wish you every success.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Bones, Ed. D

OFFICE FOR RESIDENTIAL LIFE AT EASTMAN

A MESSAGE FROM THE ASSISTANT DIRECTOR FOR RESIDENTIAL LIFE

Hello and welcome to your newest adventure! It’s an exciting time when you will change and grow in innumerable ways as you become who you are meant to be.

I’m excited to be a guide for your college experience. Here in Residential Life, our goal is to make this campus your home. I want each and every one of you to feel that you belong here, not only as a student, but as a person. I will be responsible for the many aspects that come with living on campus, from building operations to supervising Resident Advisors to creating events.

Living on campus puts you at the center of it all. Enjoy the convenience of a short walk to class and practice rooms while living in an inclusive, safe, secure, supportive, and affordable space. It is our hope that you learn more about yourself and others by joining our community and opening up to the opportunities around you. By living on campus, you will get the full college experience and live and learn with a well-trained residence hall staff that’s here for you.

I can’t wait to get to know each of you this fall and help you find your home here. I’m excited to work with passionate and talented students that define Eastman. I’m sure I’ll see you in the recital halls and local venues, as well as around the Student Living Center.

On behalf of Residential Life and the RA team, welcome to Eastman!

THE STUDENT LIVING CENTER

The Student Living Center (SLC) has been a home for Eastman students since it opened in 1991. All of the rooms come fully furnished, containing a desk, dresser, wardrobe, and a twin, extra-long bed. The rooms have Wi-Fi and many have a great view of Rochester and even Lake Ontario. There is a computer lab, free on-site laundry, a performance hall, and multiple lounges where you can spend time with your friends and study. The SLC is a secured building that is closely monitored by Public Safety Officers, Resident Advisors, and front desk office assistants. All residential areas are secured through University-issued IDs, which ensures the safety and privacy of all residents.

The Office for Residential Life includes a live-in Assistant Director and 11 Resident Advisors. Together, they provide students with guidance and resources to help students navigate any challenges or concerns that may arise. Additionally, they provide fun programs for the SLC to help relieve some of the stress of student life.

All undergraduate students who live in the SLC are provided with resources that will empower them to face the rigors of academic life with a live-in support system unlike any other. We can’t wait for the opportunity to meet and support you throughout your time at the Eastman School of Music.
FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is a Resident Advisor?
The Resident Advisors (RAs) facilitate the social, academic, and personal adjustment of students living in the Student Living Center. They develop a sense of community among residents through fun programming and act as an informative resource to students. RAs enforce the rules and policies of the SLC and serve as a liaison between residents and administration.

If I am locked out of my room, who can I call?
If you have a roommate, call them first. Between 8pm and 8am, you can call the RA On-Call at 585-764-5707. From 8am to 8pm, you can call Public Safety at 585-275-3333.

If I am having issues with my roommate, what do I do?
You can reach out to your RA! They are trained in conflict resolution and mediation.

Can we have overnight guests?
Guests are only permitted in the residential areas (the basement and upper floors) of the SLC when accompanied by a current SLC resident. Guests include friends who do not currently attend the Eastman School of Music, as well as Eastman students who reside off-campus. Once your guest arrives, they must sign in at the SLC Front Desk. You are responsible for your guest at all times, and your roommate must consent to a guest being in your room. Overnight guests are restricted to four nights a month. Residents who violate the guest policy may have their guest privileges suspended and may be charged for the additional room rent.

Who can I go to if I have questions about residential living?
You can ask your RA! They know about SLC policies and campus resources. You can talk to them about anything - not just residential life! They are here to help you have the best possible experience. All RAs have SafeZone, conflict resolution, mediation, and first aid (mental and physical) training.

What does an RA On-Call do?
The RA On-Call is the RA you can contact if you are having an emergency, are locked out of your room, need to report suspicious behaviors or odors, or want to report quiet hour violations. They go on safety rounds each night. A RA is On-Call Monday-Friday from 8pm to 8am each day.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ASSISTANT DIRECTOR FOR STUDENT ACTIVITIES & ENGAGEMENT!

Congratulations! You’re here - the Eastman School of Music. You’ve joined the select group of individuals at this prestigious institution to make your passion into a life-long pursuit. As you continue to dive head-first into study, practice, and a deeper understanding of your unique musicianship, it’s always important to remember and be motivated by the University of Rochester’s motto: “Meliora,” meaning “Ever Better”. In the Office of Student Affairs, our goal is to make your holistic experience at the Eastman School of Music “Ever Better” by providing opportunities for you to engage with other students in co-curricular activities and special events on campus and throughout the Rochester area.

My personal goal is to help cultivate a community of belonging and fun for the purpose of building a well-rounded student life. As the Assistant Director for Student Activities & Engagement, I am thrilled to take part in many activities, outings, clubs, and events that we have throughout the year. I want to see each one of you involved at Eastman, beyond your academic studies, in order to enhance your overall experience at this incredible school. Some of the events that I am particularly excited about are Welcome Weekend, Spring Fling, midnight movie premieres (my personal favorite), the occasional free “on your way to class” breakfasts in Lowry Hall, and the free food trucks right outside my office.

I look forward to participating together in these events and connecting with you throughout the year. On behalf of the Office of Student Affairs, the Eastman Orientation Committee, and the faculty and staff of the Eastman School of Music, welcome!

Sincerely,

Austin Curtis

TIPS FOR FIRST YEAR STUDENTS

Attend All of the Orientation Events
All of the events that we hold are aimed at helping you learn about the resources, departments, and student groups that will help you have a successful year here at Eastman. The events also give you unique opportunities to get to know your class and make great friends!

Ask Questions
Orientation is full of information and there can be a lot to remember. Do not hesitate to ask questions in sessions. You can also pose questions to your Team Captain and/or Residential Advisor. Everyone here is anxious to help you as you begin your first year at Eastman!

“Say Hello”
Orientation is a great way to meet new people and make friends, especially because everyone is as new to Eastman as you are! Everyone is a friend you haven’t met yet, so keep your mind open and remember to say “hello”!

No ID?
If you lost your ID, go to Lost and Found (East Wing Box Office 10 AM-3 PM) - someone may have found it. If not, see an Office Assistant at the SLC Front Desk to fill out a request form. If your ID is broken see an Office Assistant at the SLC Front Desk to fill out a request form. If you bring the broken ID, there will be no charge.

Don’t Compare
It’s hard, but don’t compare yourself to your peers or the other students. If someone sounds great in studio, tell them! But don’t feel like you’re not great too. You made it to Eastman, so trust us, you’re on your way to being a great musician.

Attend Concerts
Eastman presents over 800 free concerts each year. These are opportunities not to be missed!

Do Laundry
Do your laundry at odd times during the day/week; that way the machines won’t be busy.

Take Care of Yourself
You’ll learn best when you take care of yourself; exercise, eat regular meals, get sunlight, get enough sleep, and surround yourself with supportive people.

Utilize Your Dining Plan
In your day-to-day routine, put it in your calendar to visit the Dining Center. Our Dining Center is full of healthy and diverse options. Please refer to page 19 for dining hours.
