SIGMA ALPHA IOTA (SAI)

We, the Students’ Association and Office of Student Life of the Eastman School of Music, hereby establish SIGMA ALPHA IOTA (SAI) of the Eastman School of Music and enact this constitution for its government. Failure to follow this constitution could result in revocation of Students’ Association recognition of this organization.

Article I. Purpose of Organization/Mission Statement
Sigma Alpha Iota (SAI) is an all women's music fraternity with the goals of supporting and encouraging all women in music, promoting and supporting innovative musical ideas, excellence in music performance, providing benefit to the community of the school as well as the overall Rochester area, and exemplify professionalism in music. We will benefit the community of Eastman by providing a supportive place for women to encourage, promote, and support each other through sisterhood activities, social events, musicales, and volunteering in the community.

Article II. Membership and Eligibility
Section A. Membership
1. Eligibility – All Students’ Association members shall be eligible for membership. A SA Member is an Eastman School of Music undergraduate who has paid his/her mandatory Student Activity fee. All Eastman faculty, staff, graduate students and UR River Campus students shall be eligible for associate membership. All members and associate members shall be listed on the organization's membership roster.

2. Associate Membership – All other students enrolled in any of the other University of Rochester schools, as well as all Eastman School of Music graduate students, shall be granted Associate Memberships in the SAI. Associate members shall possess all the rights and privileges granted to full members, except for the right to vote in elections and referenda, and the right to hold executive positions in SAI.

3. Definition of associate member – In order to become a member of SAI the student must be a woman who is at least a second semester freshman or older with a grade point average of at least 2.5 who is able to meet the specific requirements of a Member-In-Training which includes education into the history, purpose, mission, and other relevant information about SAI, pass the national exam, and participate in the required rituals. The member must also pay national and chapter dues annually. Graduate students can also affiliate with the chapter if they were previously members of SAI in their undergraduate.

Article III. Meetings and Voting
