ABOUT THE BEAL INSTITUTE

The Beal Institute for Film Music and Contemporary Media at the Eastman School of Music was founded in 2016 by Emmy Award-winning composer Jeff Beal '85E (BM) and vocalist Joan Beal '84E (BM). Jeff, who received his Bachelor of Music degree from Eastman with High Distinction in 1985, serves as artistic director of the Institute and continues to be closely involved with the students, faculty, and administration of the school.

Under the direction of Mark Watters, Emmy Award-winning composer and conductor, the Institute builds on the film legacy of the School's founder, George Eastman.

We acknowledge with respect the Seneca Nation, known as the "Great Hill People" and "Keepers of the Western Door" of the Haudenosaunee Confederacy. We take this opportunity to thank the people whose ancestral lands the Eastman School of Music of the University of Rochester currently occupies in Rochester, New York.

KILBOURN CONCERT SERIES

Seth Parker Woods, Julia Bullock, and Conor Hanick

Sunday, January 25, 2026 at 3:00 PM

Kilbourn Hall

Powerhouse musicians Seth Parker Woods, Julia Bullock '09E, and Conor Hanick unite for an evening that showcases titan composers of lyricism and storytelling from the 20th and 21st centuries.

A three-time Grammy nominee, Woods has garnered a reputation for his versatile and inventive musicality, earning him global acclaim and the 2022 Chamber Music America Michael Jaffee Visionary Award. Woods is joined by Bullock, a Grammy-winning classical singer and artist, whose commanding operatic voice has conquered every genre from Baroque to contemporary. Hanick, a pianist praised for his precision and articulation of classic and contemporary fare, rounds out the trio.

Together, the musicians perform the works of George Walker '57E (DMA), John Tavener, Ravel, Andre Previn, and Nina Simone, as well as a new commission by Tania León.
