About the Young Eastman Strings Program

Young Eastman Strings (YES) is a comprehensive educational program for students in 6th grade or younger studying a bowed string instrument. The YES program offers a learning path for any level of proficiency which includes group string classes, individual lessons, ensembles and progressive classes in fundamental musical skills. At the completion of sixth grade, students may receive a certificate recognizing their commitment to learning.

We acknowledge with respect the Seneca Nation, known as the “Great Hill People” and “Keepers of the Western Door” of the Haudenosaunee Confederacy. We take this opportunity to thank the people on whose ancestral lands the Eastman School of Music of the University of Rochester currently occupies in Rochester, New York.

Audience Guidelines

Out of respect for all the performers, we ask audience members to stay until the end of the recital. If an exception must be made (for example, small children may be unable to sit through a long program quietly), please enter and leave the hall only between performers. Please ensure that children are quiet and remain seated.
