Tuesday, October 28, 2014, 8 p.m.
Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall
DARIA RABOTKINA, piano
Music by Bach, Beethoven, and Schumann
Pianist Daria Rabotkina (DMA ’12 and Eastman’s prestigious Artists Certificate) performs three works that show the expressive scope of the Baroque, Classical, and Romantic eras. This performance, sponsored by the George D. and Frieda B. Abraham Foundation, is presented in memory of Douglas Lowry.
For tickets, visit carnegiehall.org. Eastman alumni and friends receive 50% off. Use promotional code EAS19882.

Thursday, December 4, 2014, 7:30 p.m.
The Morgan Library & Museum
FEDERICO AGOSTINI, violin
ENRICO ELISI, piano
Music by Mozart, Brahms, and Beethoven
Renowned musicians and Eastman professors Agostini and Elisi perform classical violin sonatas inspired by the Morgan’s music manuscript collection.
For tickets, visit TheMorgan.org. Discount available for Eastman alumni and friends.

Thursday, January 15, 2015
How to Succeed in a Changing Musical World
Workshop presented by Eastman’s Paul R. Judy Center for Applied Research in collaboration with the Chamber Music America National Conference
Westin New York at Times Square
For more information, visit chamber-music.org.

Monday, March 2, 2015, 7:30 and 9:30
Jazz at Lincoln Center
EASTMAN JAZZ AT DIZZY’S CLUB
Eastman students will be performing two sets at Jazz at Lincoln Center’s Dizzy’s Club.
For tickets visit jazz.org/dizzys.

For more detailed information about these performances, visit esm.rochester.edu/concerts/series/NYC