The Eastman Studio Orchestra was formed by Rayburn Wright in 1970, and gave its inaugural performance on November 20th of that year. That concert included the world premiere of Rayburn's piece entitled Autumn Allegory. Much of the ensemble's repertoire comes from current Eastman student composers and arrangers. The ensemble has also been host to many guest artists, such as Stan Getz, Bob Brookmeyer, Michael Brecker, Bill Holman, Vince Mendoza, and Oliver Nelson, to name a few.

Previous conductors of the Eastman Studio Orchestra have been Rayburn Wright, Fred Sturm, and Bill Dobbins.

Kodak Hall at Eastman Theatre fire exits are located along the right and left sides, and at the back of the hall on each level. In the event of an emergency, you will be notified by the stage manager. If notified, please move in a calm and orderly fashion to the nearest exit.

Restrooms are located on each level of Kodak Hall at Eastman Theatre. Our ushers will be happy to direct you to them.

Please note: The use of unauthorized photo-graphic and recording equipment is not allowed in this building. We reserve the right to ask anyone disrupting a performance to leave the hall.

Supporting the Eastman School of Music: We at the Eastman School of Music are grateful for the generous contributions made by friends, parents, and alumni, as well as local and national foundations and corporations. Gifts and grants to the School support student scholarships, performance and academic facilities, educational initiatives, and programs open to the greater Rochester community. Every gift, no matter the size, is vital to enhancing Eastman's commitment to excellence. For more information on making a gift, please visit www.esm.rochester.edu/advancement or contact the Advancement Office by calling (585) 274-1040. Thank you!
